

AirAsia Celebrates Offering the Most Direct Routes to the South

With a Promotion Starting from Only 555 THB!

AirAsia is highlighting being the airline with the most extensive network to Thailand's south, flying 19 routes to 9 destinations, by offering a promotional fare starting at only 555 THB per trip available to book and fly immediately whether for travel home, for work or for leisure while also preparing to inaugurate the new daily direct Bangkok-Chumphon flight this 25 March 2018.

Mr. Santisuk Klongchaiya, Director of Commercial for Thai AirAsia, said "AirAsia is proud to be the airline with the most complete network of southern routes, flying from Bangkok to Phuket, Krabi, Hat Yai, Surat Thani, Nakhon Si Thammarat, Trang, Narathiwat, Ranong and from 25 March 2018, Chumphon. All together we offer 19 routes to 9 destinations in the south, flying 69 times to the region each day. Up to 3 of the airline's 6 flight bases are located in the south, in Phuket, Krabi and Hat Yai (the others are in Bangkok, Chiang Mai and U-Tapao). With 90 percent of the average Load Factor to the region, we are very thankful to the people of the south for their continued trust in us and for making the region such a popular tourist destination".

To further support travel to the south during the mid-year holiday season, AirAsia is offering a promotional fare starting at only 555 THB per trip. Bookings can be made 19-25 March for travel immediately until 30 September, 2018 at www.airasia.com.
